OVERVIEW

Chris is a senior paralegal who concentrates on commercial litigation.

She is knowledgeable in all phases of the litigation process at the state and federal court levels and has experience on matters ranging from single-plaintiff to large complex commercial litigation. She manages cases from initial investigation through large-scale document production, arbitration, pretrial preparation and trial assistance. She also has extensive experience working with litigation databases and software.

Chris is also a member of the firm's general docketing team, assisting attorneys with docketing for matters to which paralegals are not assigned. She has handled docketing on matters involving several practice areas of law, including bankruptcy and civil and criminal litigation.
