OVERVIEW

Keilan is a transactional attorney with experience in both real estate and M&A transactions, with a focus on the renewable energy sector.

Drawn to the profession by her desire to help people, Keilan always knew she wanted to be a lawyer. Her passion for transactional work was solidified during her time in law school, particularly through a Business Law Bootcamp that introduced her to mergers and acquisitions, real estate transactions, and business planning.

Keilan focuses her practice on transactional matters, representing a diverse array of clients in both real estate and corporate transactions. She has substantial experience guiding clients through mergers and acquisitions, joint ventures, and major land acquisitions, as well as complex real estate developments and financing. Keilan regularly advises on both buy-side and sell-side deals, auction-style sales, startup formations, equity buyouts, and large-scale property transactions for renewable energy and infrastructure projects.

Keilan is known for her strong communication skills, attention to detail, and proactive approach to problem-solving. She aims to provide clients with a collaborative and empowering experience, ensuring their interests are always prioritized. Keilan's dedication and passion for corporate transactions make her a valuable asset to any project she undertakes.
