Husch Blackwell's Anderson Honored by Latino Leaders Magazine

Husch Blackwell is pleased to announce that Denver associate Sonia Ramirez Anderson has been selected by Latino Leaders magazine for its 2020 “Lawyers to Keep on the Watch” list.

The magazine’s selection committee selected 25 Latino lawyers who are “on the path to become top Latino lawyers in the country...based on relevant successful cases, professional activity and recognitions, community involvement and inclusion in the Super Lawyers Rising Stars category.” The magazine received more than 100 nominations for the honor.

Anderson focuses her practice on helping companies navigate various employment related issues. She currently serves as the Vice President of Committees for the Colorado Hispanic Bar Association (CBHA) and was recently named CBHA’s Outstanding New Hispanic Lawyer.
