Husch Blackwell Represents Black & Veatch in Sale of Environmental Services Business Unit

Husch Blackwell represented Black & Veatch as seller’s counsel in the company’s announced sale of its environmental services business unit to Versar, Inc., a global project management company owned by Los Angeles-based Kingswood Capital Management, LP. The business unit provides a range of services, including environmental remediation, investigation, assessment, and design for the Environmental Protection Agency, the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, and other federal government agencies.

The Husch Blackwell deal team was led by Drew Bergman and included John Moore.
