The American Health Law Association (AHLA) has ranked Husch Blackwell as a Top 10 firm in its “Top Honors” for 2021. The firm ranks at #5, a move up from 2020’s #6 ranking.

The firm counts 200 attorneys who are AHLA members. Top Honors “recognizes organizations behind AHLA’s members: law firms, organizations, health plans, businesses and government agencies that consistently and enthusiastically encourage and sustain their members’ and employees’ affiliation with AHLA.”

Seven Husch Blackwell attorneys hold national leadership positions within AHLA:

Thomas N. Shorter, FACHE, President-Elect

Cori Casey Turner, Chair, Women’s Leadership Council

Albert Y. Lin, Vice Chair of Educational Programming, Tax and Finance Practice Group

Jed A. Roher, Vice Chair of Educational Programming, Business Law and Governance Practice Group

Harvey M. Tettlebaum, Fellow, AHLA and Member, Journal of Health & Life Sciences Law Editorial Board

Emily M. Park, Member, Long Term Care and the Law Program Planning Committee

Varsha Gadani, Member, Young Professionals Council
