

ARTICLES

PUBLISHED: OCTOBER 14, 2021

Service

Government
Contracts

Industry

Real Estate,
Development, &
Construction

Thomson Reuters Westlaw: New proposed rule seeks to implement accelerated payments to small business contractors across the government

"In late September, the FAR Council issued a proposed rule that would potentially speed up payments to small business prime contractors and subcontractors across the federal government." Read the full article in Westlaw Today: New proposed rule seeks to implement accelerated payments to small business contractors across the government