Husch Blackwell Shortlisted for Managing IP Americas Awards 2022

Husch Blackwell is pleased to announce that the firm's intellectual property litigation team has been shortlisted by Managing IP for its 2022 Americas Awards series in the Midwest for Patent Contentious. The regional-level award seeks to recognize the year's most outstanding firm in one of four regions.

Managing IP's Americas Award series recognizes the country's most distinguished intellectual property practitioners and their firms for their remarkable achievements and developments over the past year based on months of evaluating work data supplied by firms and, where applicable, reviewing publicly available information such as court and IP office records. The award winners will be announced at ceremonies in New York on April 7.
