Mitchell Named to Spring 2022 Class of Milwaukee's Forward 48

Husch Blackwell is pleased to announce that associate Sam Mitchell has been named to the Spring 2022 class of Forward 48, the Milwaukee region's premier leadership development program.

Mitchell, based in the firm's Milwaukee office, is a member of the firm's Labor & Employment practice. He has extensive experience defending clients in diverse industries before state and federal courts and administrative agencies with a particular focus on the healthcare and higher education industries.

Forward 48 brings together 48 emerging leaders from the Milwaukee area twice a year with the goal of building a robust and diverse civic leadership succession strategy through experiential learning, professional development, and exclusive networking opportunities.
