

NEWS RELEASES

PUBLISHED: NOVEMBER 8, 2022

Services

Commercial
Litigation

Construction &
Design

Litigation &
Alternative Dispute
Resolution

Wisconsin Association of African-American Lawyers Elects Kweyu to Board of Directors

Husch Blackwell is pleased to announce that associate Naomie Kweyu has been elected to the Wisconsin Association of African-American Lawyers (WAAL) board of directors where she will serve as a co-director of communications.

WAAL is dedicated to ensuring diversity in Wisconsin's legal community. WAAL partners with other community, state and national programs designed to ameliorate or eliminate racism, ignorance, poverty and powerlessness, the organized and non-organized Bar, the Bench, scholars and researchers, the private sector as well as governmental agencies to fulfill its mission.

Kweyu, based in the firm's Milwaukee office, is a member of the firm's Commercial Litigation; Construction & Design; and Litigation & Alternative Dispute Resolution practices.