Husch Blackwell's Vane Earns Texas Board of Legal Specialization Certification for Legislative and Campaign Law

Husch Blackwell is pleased to announce Mark Vane is now one of only 13 Texas lawyers who has earned board certification in Legislative and Campaign Law from the Texas Board of Legal Specialization.

Vane, who is based in the firm's Austin office, helps clients develop public policy and tackle high-stakes issues at the Texas State Capitol and state agencies. His legislative practice focuses on healthcare, taxation, appropriations, business regulation, the environment and entertainment

"[Vane has] all the bases covered," one of his clients recently told Texas Super Lawyers magazine. "He knows the legislators. He knows the staff. He knows the politics. He knows the issues. He knows the process."

Vane is also a principal with Husch Blackwell Strategies where advises clients on legislation, rulemaking, policy development, licensing, and enforcement actions.
