Zoey Mayhew Named to Michigan Lawyers Weekly's Influential Women of Law Class of 2023

National law firm Husch Blackwell is pleased to announce that attorney Zoey Mayhew has been selected by Michigan Lawyers Weekly for inclusion in its Class of 2023 “Influential Women of Law.”

Mayhew helps clients with navigating the gray areas of employment law and making the best decisions for both their employees and businesses. Mayhew is a member of Husch Blackwell’s Technology, Manufacturing, and Transportation industry group and is based in the firm’s virtual office, The Link.

Michigan Lawyers Weekly’s awards program, previously known as “Women in the Law,” honors women attorneys and judges for their work on behalf of the justice system and for their clients, their commitment to their communities, and their service to the profession.
