Husch Blackwell is pleased to announce that attorney Katesha Long has been selected by The National Black Lawyers (NBL) for inclusion in its Top 40 Under 40 Black Lawyers, an honor given to a select group of lawyers with reputations for providing excellent representation in their respective practice areas.

Based in St. Louis, Long is a member of the firm's Real Estate, Development & Construction industry group. She helps developers, retailers and investors overcome obstacles and seize opportunities through the purchase, sale and leasing of property. Long advises municipalities in all aspects of municipal law, including planning, zoning, financing, and development incentives. In addition to her real estate work, she provides legal services to museums, art collectors and not-for-profit organizations in all aspects of art law.

The NBL celebrates legal excellence by promoting attorneys as subject-matter experts, developing a strong national network of top African American attorneys, and facilitating the exchange of timely information to enable members to maintain their status as leaders. Membership in the NBL is by invitation only and is based on current member referrals and independent research.
