Husch Blackwell's Irwin and Kelly Named to Top 100 Lawyers list by AzBusiness

National law firm Husch Blackwell is pleased to announce that AzBusiness has named partners Megan Irwin and Benjamin Kelly to the “Top 100 Lawyers in Arizona for 2024” list.

Irwin is Husch Blackwell’s Phoenix Office Managing Partner and advises clients on all facets of corporate operations that touch upon environmental law. She represents clients regarding complex compliance and permitting issues under federal and state environmental regulatory programs. She also coordinates clients’ environmental remediation efforts, leading and collaborating with internal and external consultants.

Kelly focuses his practice on assisting families in navigating the complexities of their personal and financial worlds, building solutions around clients’ specific needs in estate planning. He designs and implements sophisticated estate plans for high-net-worth individuals. Kelly is a member of the firm’s Private Wealth practice group.
