Sarah George to Receive Young Alumni Award at Pepperdine Caruso School of Law's Belonging Awards

National law firm Husch Blackwell is pleased to announce that attorney Sarah George will be honored with the Young Alumni Award at Pepperdine Caruso School of Law's fourth annual Belonging Awards.

George is a member of Husch Blackwell's Labor & Employment and Workplace Diversity, Equity, & Inclusion practice teams and is based in the firm's virtual office, The Link. She helps clients proactively address labor and employment matters, creating an inclusive and welcoming culture for their employees. George primarily focuses on offering preventative counsel on compliance with federal and state employment regulations. Prior to joining Husch Blackwell, George spent time as a federal law clerk for the Honorable André Birotte Jr., U.S. District Court for the Central District of California, and the Honorable James E. Graves Jr., U.S. Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit.

The award acknowledges alumni whose contributions have made a significant impact on diversity and belonging within the legal community. Honorees will be recognized at an event on Saturday, March 2, 2024, at Caruso Law's Malibu, California campus.
