Husch Blackwell Listed Among Kansas City's Best Companies to Work For by Ingram's

National law firm Husch Blackwell is pleased to announce it has been named among Kansas City's Best Companies to Work For by Ingram's.

Ingram's "Best Companies to Work For" list recognizes workplaces of the highest quality in the greater Kansas City area—distinguished by management practices, educational opportunities, benefits, and teamwork spirit, setting them apart from thousands of other companies in the region.

"Our firm has deep roots in Kansas City and we're grateful to Ingram's for recognizing Husch Blackwell among the best companies to work for," said Jeff Simon, Husch Blackwell's Kansas City Office Managing Partner. "We're proud of the culture we've created that will allow us to attract and retain exceptional talent."

Husch Blackwell will build on its 20-year legacy in the South Plaza with a new lease term that begins in 2025. The firm has entered into an agreement that will keep its Kansas City office at the Plaza Colonnade building through 2037.

In 2023, Simon and partner Hayley Hanson were named to the eighth edition of Ingram's 250, which recognizes "the most powerful and influential business leaders in the Kansas City region." Hanson, also based in Kansas City, is the architect of one of the powerhouse higher education practices in the nation.
