National law firm Husch Blackwell is pleased to announce that partner James O'Shea, II, has been selected to the 2024 Irish Legal 100.

The Irish Legal 100, founded in 2008, is an annual compilation recognizing the most distinguished Irish legal professionals in the United States, all sharing a common bond: pride in their Irish roots. The Irish Legal 100 includes attorneys from the corporate world, major firms, and entrepreneurial backgrounds, as well as judges and law school faculty.

O'Shea, a member of the firm's Technology, Manufacturing, & Transportation industry group, focuses his practice on toxic tort matters and product liability, with an emphasis on asbestos claims. He plays a critical role in advocating on behalf of companies in depositions of experts and fact witnesses with the goal of minimizing clients' potential liability.

A celebration for honorees was hosted at the residence of the Ambassador of Ireland to the United States in Washington, D.C., on October 17, 2024.
