Myers Dill Named to St. Louis Business Journal's 2025 40 Under 40 Class

National law firm Husch Blackwell is pleased to announce that partner Myers Dill has been included in the St. Louis Business Journal's 2025 40 Under 40 class.

Dill, a patent attorney, helps clients gain a competitive advantage via intellectual property—both through tactical patent portfolio management and strategically negotiated technology contracts. He guides clients as they make decisions regarding patent strategies and manages a team of associates and patent agents who protect valuable IP assets. He also assists clients in drafting and negotiating complex technology agreements, such as software licensing and development agreements.

Honorees are chosen through an independent editorial review, with selections based entirely on their merits, achievements, and contributions to their organizations and the local community.

Dill will be profiled in the Nov. 7 issue of the St. Louis Business Journal and recognized at an event on Nov. 6.
