OVERVIEW

Julia enjoys helping clients keep their businesses on track in highly regulated sectors.

Julia helps clients navigate regulatory matters to conduct business smoothly across the nation and throughout the world.

She advises clients on federal and state regulatory issues, providing customized analysis before large-scale projects are set in motion and partnering with clients large and small to establish compliance programs that keep trade flowing across borders and keep business moving.

From maritime and transportation matters to federal regulatory matters, Julia advises clients to ensure their compliance is robust as they navigate changing and complicated regulatory schemes. Julia serves as a liaison and advocate for clients before various state and federal agencies such as the Federal Election Commission (FEC), Federal Trade Commission (FTC), and Federal Maritime Commission (FMC)—as well as in state and federal court. Her regulatory knowledge includes campaign finance and election law, state investigations, antitrust, trucking and maritime compliance, and alcoholic beverage licensing.

When problems do arise, Julia manages the team that navigates litigation and provides strategic guidance to resolve disputes.
