OVERVIEW

Hattie advises clients on a broad range of regulatory and litigation matters, with a growing emphasis on transportation law.

Hattie represents clients in the highly regulated transportation, manufacturing, and energy sectors, guiding them through complex compliance issues, enforcement actions, and litigation. Her transportation practice includes assisting motor carriers, shippers, and logistics providers with federal and state regulatory compliance, contract negotiation, and risk management. She counsels clients on matters involving the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration (FMCSA), the Department of Transportation (DOT), and related agencies, and she is adept at helping clients navigate the evolving landscape of transportation law.

In addition to her transportation practice, Hattie has significant experience advising clients on products liability and employment matters. She regularly assists businesses with risk management, litigation defense, and regulatory compliance related to workplace issues and product safety, drawing on her broad legal background to deliver practical, business-focused solutions across these key areas.

Hattie is dedicated to collaborating across disciplines to help clients achieve their operational and business objectives in a rapidly changing regulatory environment.
