Husch Blackwell is pleased to announce that Thomson Reuters Super Lawyers has selected two Husch Blackwell partners Kevin Kelley and Jamie Steiner to its 2023 Colorado Super Lawyers® and Rising Stars lists, respectively.

Kelley, a member of the firm's Real Estate, Development & Construction industry, was named to the Super Lawyers list for Real Estate. He has been selected to Super Lawyers every year since 2009.

Steiner was included on the Rising Stars list for Business Litigation for the third consecutive year. She is a member of the firm's Technology, Manufactory, and Transportation industry group.

Covering more than 70 practice areas, Super Lawyers® is a directory of lawyers who have attained a high degree of peer recognition and professional achievement. Only five percent of attorneys are selected to the Super Lawyers list and two and a half percent are selected to the Rising Stars list in each state. The annual selection process includes a statewide survey of lawyers, independent research of candidates, and peer reviews by practice area. The Rising Star category is for attorneys who are under 40 years old or who have fewer than ten years of legal experience.
